It is claimed by those who visit the place daily that since the competion of the deep railroad cut that the big spring half a mile weat of town and usually known as Sweet Spring is rapidly failing and doubtless soon will cease to flow altogether. If true this will not only be a misfortune to the owner of the land. Mr Ed Naim, but will bring a tinge of regret to the bearts of many an old couple who still remember the time when they were wont to stroll there on Sunday after noon or partook of the bountiful repast apread at the great barbeynes and plenion held there of old.
